

ROB WRIGHT
PARTNER
HEAD OF INVESTMENT BANKING

With over 25 years of blue-chip investment banking experience, Rob serves as the head of Meriwether's Investment Banking Practice, Rob is dedicated to helping fast-growing consumer brands find the right strategic and financial partners to assist with growth initiatives and meet liquidity needs. Rob offers a unique mix of relevant industry and operational knowledge, high-level investor relationships and hands-on senior-level guidance.

Since joining the firm in 2016, Rob has guided successful transactions with some of the most compelling consumer brands in the market, including Little Big Burger, Dave's Killer Bread, Voodoo Donuts, Handel's Ice Cream, Kerrits and Alpenrose Dairy. Before Meriwether, Rob spent 15 years at D.A. Davidson and Needham and Company, both full-service national investment banking firms, where he provided a full range of corporate financial services.

Rob is a fourth-generation Oregonian and rabid college sports fan who loves outdoor activities including skiing and golf. He earned his MBA from the Atkinson Graduate School of Management at Willamette University, and his BA in Finance from Pacific Lutheran University.
