

TK KOMLOFSKE ACCELERATORS

TK is a proven strategic leader who values the authentic moments that elevate the human experience. She believes in the power of building long-term relationships by elevating the mission of the people we work with, the companies we work for, and the communities we serve.

She is a holistic thinker who considers the experience-impact of a proposed strategy alongside profitability and performance. A savvy conversationalist and researcher, naturally guiding discussions to uncover key points, understand barriers and areas of concern, and tease out threads of importance. She specializes in the intersection of the customer journey, sales strategy, revenue operations, marketing, business analytics, program implementation, and fiscal stability. Her work and experience span large enterprise organizations, mid-size companies, and startups in action sports, gaming, apparel, media, outdoor and lifestyle brands.

TK thrives on a challenge and is achievement driven both professionally and personally. She is a dedicated athlete specializing in grappling arts and a world champion Jiu Jitsu competitor.
